Re: Covington Catholic High School

Dear Special Agent Brown,

I was recently made aware from a press account that the Covington Field Office of the FBI may be investigating threats against students at the Covington Catholic High School in Covington, Kentucky who had publicly exercised their 1st Amendment rights in supporting a pro-life position. See <https://www.lifesitenews.com/news/fbi-told-us-its-investigating-threats-against-covington-students-pro-life-g>.

While Covington is obviously not within the State of Ohio, I am concerned that Ohio children attend the school and may have been threatened. If the Ohio Attorney General's Office is able to assist in any investigation, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Dave Yost
Ohio Attorney General
